TO MEET AT PUTNEY

Vermont Guernsey Breeders' Association on Aug. 18.

Waterbury, Aug. 6.—Mark H.
Moody, secretary-treasurer of the Vermont Guernsey Breeders' association, announces the summer meeting on Aug. 18 at Elm-Leigh farm, Putney owned by Edward R. Andrews. The meeting will begin at 2 p. m. William H. Caldwell, secretary of the American Guernsey Cattle club, will be present and will speak. Valancey E. Ful-ter of New Jersey, the expert feeder of dairy cattle, will also address the meeting. C. R. Wedman, manager of Elm-Leigh farm, will tell about the management of the herd. The Elm-Leigh Guernseys have made a high record. Mr. Andrews has also been equally successful in producing large crops of alfalfa. It is planned to have some Guernseys scored, and this and the inspection of the alfalfa fields should prove very instructive.

Putney is 10 miles north of Brattleboro and Elm-Leigh farm is two and one-half miles from the Putney depot.
The trains run very conveniently for this afternoon meeting. Quite a number will make the trip by automobile, and it has been suggested that each member who has a car should invite some of his friends to accompany him. All interested in Guernseys and dairying are invited, ladies especially so, and a royal good time is expected.

Mystery and Thrills in "House of the Lost Court"

Film of C. N. Williamson's Novel Made by the Edison Company Starring VIOLA DANA

The story has many complications and is characterized by thrills, sentiment and fantasy. It deals with the mysterious effect of an East Indian drug known as the "sleep of death," which strange to say, saves the life of Sir Anthony Elliott, artist and nobleman, convicted of murder and sentenced to death on the perjured testimony of a woman whose love he has not returned. It is well worth seeing.
The scenes in which Dolores Edgerton, the young American girl, played by Viola Dana (late star of "The Poor Little Rich Girl"), discovers the mysterious "ghost" in the secret chamber of the castle and returns to chat with him at various times, are among the most delightful in the film. Of course Anthony's innocence is proven through the cleverness of the girl who has now come to love him, and they live—let us hope—happily ever afterward.

TOMORROW—A Broadway Star Feature "Rectors' at Seven"—Kate Price and Hughie Mack.
